

A traveling student who meets one or more of the following criteria is on

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN RELATED TRAVEL (UMRT):

- Receives U-M in-residence credit for the experience
- Receives funding from a U-M unit or receives funds managed by the U-M for their travel
- Participates in a travel abroad experience that is necessary to achieve a degree requirement. This could include experiences such as degree milestones, dissertation field research, practical, internships, etc.
- Travels on a program or trip organized by a Sponsored Student Organization or a program or trip that is formally sanctioned by a U-M unit as a Sponsored Event
- Travels on a program or trip that is U-M Managed or Organized***

*An international experience is considered U-M Managed or Organized when a U-M unit, faculty, or staff member is involved in creating, funding, or approving the experience, or coordinating the applications and selection of participants.

If you meet one or more of the criteria listed, next steps are:

- Register your travel with the U-M Travel Registry
- Complete a Travel Health Plan or Safety Plan based on the U-M Travel Risk Rating (if applicable)
- Purchase U-M's Travel Abroad Health Insurance (GeoBlue)

If this criteria does not apply to you, recommended next steps are:

- Register personal travel U-M Travel Registry
- Consider purchasing U-M's Travel Abroad Health Insurance (GeoBlue)

Note about Taking Classes Remotely or Working Remotely From One's Home Country

In general, working remotely and taking classes remotely from outside the United States are not considered UMRT. For example, a student living in their home country and taking U-M courses remotely is not considered to be on UMRT.

For additional information and criteria, visit the International Travel Policy guide.

Please visit global.umich.edu for additional travel resources.